

Thank you, O Lord, for our beautiful world, which is yours. Let us, O Lord, be skilled enough and free enough and loving enough to help our sisters and brothers who are left out of our world, or tired in spirit or broken from oppression or sickness or shame. Let us be able to help them recognise and tap strength of spirit in their own lives. Let us be able to help them to value self and others and take their rightful place in society in dignity, in joy, in forgiveness, and in loving service.

In peace and in laughter, in trouble and in tears, thank you O Lord, for the fellowship that is generated among us all in this work.

This is yours, this is You. We offer this.

Thank you for the beauty that shines through colleague and survivor and outcast and sorrowing one.

This is yours, this is You. We offer this, for your glory is man fully alive.

Thank you for what we do, and may this be your doing.

We offer you what we are, for it is your breath that is our essence and our life.

*This is our offering, O Lord,
This is our offering.*
